

Dr. Harshbir S. Pannu

Dr. Harshbir S. Pannu, an eminent Minimally Invasive Cardio Thoracic Vascular Surgeon, has over 24 years of experience in the field of Heart, lung and vascular surgery. Having worked with top notch hospitals both in the country and overseas, he has to his credit 8200+ surgeries, ranging from newborn to 90 years old, from simple to complex and rejected cases with a success rate of 99% . He holds a position of international repute in the field of Heart Surgery and is enlisted as a GOOGLE SCHOLAR for scientific contributions in Heart Surgery. Is a member of the International Society of minimally invasive Cardiothoracic Surgery (ISMICS), Beverly, MA, USA and is member by invitation of the Society of Thoracic Surgeons(STS) IL, Chicago, USA. and was enrolled as International member of the STS in USA in 2012, a rare distinction held by only 50 heart surgeons from India in the last 50 years.

Professional Experience:

M.Ch. (Cardiothoracic and Vascular Surgery) from PGIMER, Chandigarh, India in 1992 after his MBBS and MS from Patiala.

ADVANCED TRAINEE OF ROYAL COLLEGE OF Australasia at New Zealand and Australia (1997-2000).

Dr. Pannu has Experience in Indias best during Jan 1993 - Dec 1996 at Madras Medical Mission, Chennai, India. Under the leadership of Padamshree Dr KM Cherian; who is arguably considered the father of all modern cardiac operations in India.

- He Assisted and participated in nearly 2000 (including Adult And Pediatric Cardiac Surgeries.
- Part of team which performed India's First Female Heart Transplant operation. Credit of performing close to over 400 operations Independently.

To his credit is one of the major Heart Operations ever performed in history of Medicine. The Worlds First Hybrid of repairing Internal rupture (due to heart attack) of the heart along with Tripple

Bypass surgery on beating heart was done at Amritsar in 2006 as Chief of Escorts Amritsar. This was presented as Worlds First teaching Video in Boston USA in 2008 with 2 year survival results at the International Society of Minimally Invasive heart surgery conference. He has been awarded several national awards and has read and published over one dozen international papers in the field of Heart Surgery.

Formerly associated as Consultant:

Escorts Heart Institute and research New Delhi (with Padam Shree Dr Naresh Trehan) Escorts

Arneja heart Inst, at Nagpur;

Escorts Heart Centre at Raipur;

Escorts Heart & super speciality Inst Amritsar as Chief Surgeon and chairman Hospital Infection control committee;

Chief Cardiac Surgeon Batra Hospital, New Delhi

Chief Cardiovascular Surgeon of Ivy Group of Hospitals. Mohali